IRONICAL SPEECH OF CLARK.

Slapped the Pennsylvanian In a Half Humorous Way For His Change of Heart-House Had Another Inning Over Gage's Sale.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18 .- The house had another inning over the sale of the New York custom house by Secretary Gage. Mr. Sulzer, of New York, the author of the resolution for an investigation of the secretary's transactions with the New York banks, started the ball rolling by charging that the mandate had already gone forth to suppress it. Mr. Sibley, of Pennsylvania (Dem.), formerly a radical advocate of free silver, who is now out of sympathy with the Democrats in the house, varmly commended Mr. Gage's course. These two speeches precipitated a debate which lasted almost three hours.

Mr. Sulzer in his speech described the sale of the New York custom house to the "Standard Oil trust."

Mr. Sulzer, continuing, quoted the words of President McKinley while a member of congress in criticism of the course of Secretary Fairchild in keeping government funds in national

Mr. Sibley said he had been requested to introduce a resolution of investigation. He had replied that in the hour of peril the secretary of the treasary had acted with promptness and prudence, and that in his opinion congress would at all times uphold a public officer striving to uphold the honor and credit of the business interests of the country (Republican applause.) Mr. Sibley said he had read the answer of Secretary Gage to the house resolution and he considered it a full, free and frank statement, which completely justified each and every transaction. A conflagration had started in New York, he said, and it required courage and will to stop the panic before it had ex- All Three of the Kentucky Killings tended itself.

ironically commented upon Mr. Sibley's speech. Before he had known of Mr. Sibley's change of front he had written an article urging him for the Democratic vice presidential nomination. He did not wish to withdraw his personal York, who had always been faithful to covery. Democratic principles. [Democratic and Republican applause.] He recalled the time when Mr. Sibley had told how he had been ostracized, socially and commercially, because he had supported silver at 16 to 1. "We hailed him as a hero," said Mr. Clark, "because he was the only Democrat north of the Potomac and east of the Missippi who stood true to the Democracy of the Mississippi valley. Now he wins the applause of those who are hostile to every principle of the Democratic faith. His place in this house is on the other side of the political aisle. [Democratic ap-

Mr. Sibley replied briefly. Ordinarily, he said, he would be humiliated to have the vice presidential nomination publiciy withdrawn, but he had already withdrawn in favor of Mr. Sulzer. He was more concerned with the statement that he should take his seat on the other side because he had changed his

"I claim equal honesty for both positions. I believed in 1896 that bimetalhsm was sacred, but events have so changed conditions by the enormous production of gold that the price level, for which both the gentleman from Missouri (Clark) and I were striving, was raised. The cause I held sacred then has become ridiculous. I believe if the Democratic party is victorious this fall it will not be able to write a single line of financial legislation in the next six years. I am striving to do something practical and helpful. If the have a policy; it must do something be-sides carp and fault find. If it will adopt a policy I will keep step with it, but if it invites me to a banquet of carping and fault-finding, it will have to excuse me." (Loud Republican applause.)

Mr. Grosvenor (O.) explained that the committee on rules, to which the Sulzer resolution had gone, had not acted because no evidence had been produced before the committee to warrant the ordering of such a far-reaching investigation.

Mr. Hepburn (Rep., Ia.) assailed Mr. Sulzer for some of his extravagant statements, and declared there ought to be some way to rebuke a member for slandering honored officials. Later in the day, during the discussion of the appropriation for the army, Mr. Cannan, in charge of the bill, challenged any member to move to strike it out. Mr. Williams (Dem., Miss.) replied to Mr. Cannon in an eloquent speech, in which he affirmed the loyalty of every American citizen to the flag, and charged Mr. Cannon with shrewdly issuing a challenge that he knew would not be accepted. The urgent deficiency bill was passed with only one unimportant amendment.

CHICAGO CANAL OPENED.

Secured Tanner's Permission Before St. Louis Made Appeals to the Courts.

LOCKPORT, Ills., Jan. 18.—The beartrap dam separating the drainage canal from the Desplaines river was lowered by the Sanitary District trustees, with the consent of the canal commissioners and Governor Tanner, and 200,000 cubic teet of water per minute rushed with a roar into the Desplaines river, on its way to the Gulf of Mexico.

CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—Attorneys representing the city of St. Louis made an application before Judge Kohlsaat, of the United States district court, for an injunction to restrain the board of trustees of the Sanitary district from turning the sewage of the Chicago river into the Desplaines river. Judge Kohlsaat set Saturday, Jan. 20, as the date for hearing arguments.

Washington, Jan. 18.—The state of Missouri, by its attorney general, Mr. E. B Crow, made application in the supreme court and asked leave to file a bill, praying for an injunction against the state of Illinois and the city of Chicago to restrain them from operating the recently opened drainage canal. The court took the motion, but did not indicate when action would be teken.

The other morning papers are out with extra editions confirming the dispatch from Spearman's farm to the Times, The Daily Telegraph's correspondent, under yesterday's date, said:

"I am permitted to wire from Spearman's farm that General Lyttleton yesterday afternoon ferried and forded Potgieter's drift and seized with little opposition a line of low ridges a mile from there. During the night a Howitzer battery was carried across. Today, from Mount Alice, near Swartzkop, naval guns and Howitzers effectively shelled the Boer position, which is strong.

"General Warren also today crossed the Tugela, six miles farther to the west, near Wagon drift, with all arms, in the face of a hot and heavy fire from Boer cannon and rifles. He has effected a most satisfactory lodgment two miles further on toward Sproen kop.'

ALTOONA, Pa., Jan. 18 .- At Sprnce Creek, east of this city, Charles Robinson, a Pennsylvania Railroad telegraph Byrne Routed a Band to Negros Moun- operator, shot to death Thomas O'Neil, of Greensburg, Pa.

> O'Neil was employed as an engineer by Contractor Sims on the railway improvement and had boarded at the Robinson house until Robinson had ordered him to leave because of his being too friendly with Mrs. Robinson. Robinson intercepted a letter from O'Neil telling Mrs. Robinson that he would arrive at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning. Shortly after it o'cloch he asked Mrs. Robinson's father to take charge of his tower for a few minutes, as he wanted to go go out. He started for home, a quarter of a mile away, borrowing a revoiver on his way. When he got to the house he found his wife, her sister and O'Neill all there.

Without saying a word he pulled out the revolver and opened fire. Seven shots struck O'Neil. Robinson then fired three shots at his wife, but did not hit her. He threw the revolver away, picked up O'Neil's dead body and carried it out of the house, throwing it down in the snow on the public road. Without a word he walked back to his post at the tower and went to work, having been gone only 20 minutes.

Robinson was arrested and placed in the Huntingdon county jail. The coroner's jury rendered a verdict in accordance with the above facts.

The couple had planned an elopement, it is said, and were to have left on the next train after O'Neil arrived. The murder, however, cut short all their Elkins Promised Hanna to Make Up Any Deficiency.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 18.—President Henry Burk, of the Citizens' Convention association, emphatically denied the rumors sent broadcast from & Washington to the effect that the committee was unable to redeem its pledge of $100,000 for the national Republican committee to open the campaign. He asserts that no fear or failure is entertained and that the $100,000 will be forthcoming.

William L. Elkins, the millionaire traction magnate, of this city, is said to have remarked to Senator Hanna:

"Don't worry over that $100,000 promised the national committee, senator; if it is not made up by the time you need it, call upon me and I will make good the deficiency."

Decided to Recall Treats.

Washington, Jan. 18 .- In the executive session of the senate, Senator Jones (Ark.) moved to reconsider the vote by which the Samoan treaty was ratified. He based his motion upon a statement which he said he had seen in the press to the effect that the American flag had already been run up on the island of Tutuila. Senator Frye replied that the report to which Senator Jones referred was without foundation. No action was taken upon the motion, but it was decided to recall the treaty, which had been forwarded to the president with notice of the senate's favorable action.

I replied that I was the sicker of the two, as I could at that time scarcely straighten up with my back from lameness, weakness and severe pains. He asked me what my symptoms were and I explained to him that I had suffered for a number of vears from my kidneys, that I had attacks at times when nothing helped me, and it was agony to get around, but that I could not endure idleness. The secretions from the kidneys were very high colored and acidous; that I had spells of dizziness when I could see black specks floating before my eyes and felt generally broken up. He looked up and said he had the very thing I needed to cure me in his house-Doan's kidney pills. He went into the house and brought me eight pills. I took them with me and I used them two at a dose. BOARD OF EDUCATION

Four Members to Elect In the Spring.

COUNCIL WILL NEED SIX

Norris and Murphy Have Announced Their Retirement From the School Board, and Cain Will Drop Out of Council—Candidates Are Not Looming Up Very Fast,

There will be four members of the board of education and six members of council to nominate at the spring primaries and there will be some warm contests.

Norris, Williams, Murphy and Vodrey retire from the board of education. Norris and Murphy have announced that they will not be candidates again, while Williams is still undecided. It is not known what Vodrey will do. No candidates have been mentioned for the places, but there will be plenty of them before nomination day.

Marshall, Cain, Seckerson and Ashbaugh are the retiring members of council, and with the two members from the new Fifth ward it makes six to elect. Cain has decided he won't be a candidate again, and Seckerson has moved out of the Third ward. Ashbaugh will be in the race again, and Marshall is undecided whether he would like to represent that new Fifth ward in council.

James Martin has been suggested as a candidate from the new Fifth ward and it is also rumored that S. J. Cripps will be asked to represent the Third ward. In the First and Second wards no aspirants for the office have been suggested.

AUTOMOBILE LINE.

Local Parties Are Getting Interested In the Lisbon Project.

There is some talk of a company being formed in the city to run an automobile line to Lisbon, to carry out the idea of ex-Sheriff Gill. The matter is being thoroughly canvassed, and if the project can be made to pay the line will be put in operation in the spring.

Pottery Election.

The Western Reserve Pottery company, of Warren, which will soon have its new plant in full operation, has elected directors as follows: E. A. Volt, F. C. Iddings, J. W. Spangenberg, B. F. ANOTHER POTTERY

MAY BE BUILT.

Local Parties Are After a Site Back of East End Pottery,

Another industry may be located in the East End very soon.

A few days ago several business men of this place were in the East End and looked at a number of sites fronting on the railroad. They made overtures to secure the land back of the East End pottery, but upon consulting Mr. Harper, of the East End Land company, found that negotiations for the sale of this particular site were now on with other parties, who intend to erect a manufacturing plant. Dr. Calhoun was detailed to investigate several other sites that are available.

The nature of the industry to be built is not made public, although some of those on the inside intimate that another pottery will be built.

SALARY VS. FEES.

The bill introduced by Representative Gear in the legislature to abolish the system of paying county officials in fees and paying instead a fixed salary, will scarcely become law, at present anyway. Under the bill the fixed salaries in Columbiana county would be: Treasurer, $2,850; auditor, $3,000; probate judge, $2,700; clerk of courts, $2,400; sheriff, $3,000; prosecuting attorney. $1,000; recorder, $1,800; commissioners, $1,400 each.

WELL WON.

When the case of Brigham H. Roberts, congressman-elect from Utah, first attracted attention it was generally supposed that the only thing for congress to do was to admit and expel him. It remained for Hon. Robert W. Tayler. representative from this district, to devise and execute a plan which disposed of the polygamist in speedier and more effective form. This was to positively refuse him admission to the house. Some of the ablest parlamentarians held that this could not properly be done; that the only way was to admit and expel. So strenuous were they in their insistence that the committee, although unanimous for the expulsion of Roberts as guilty of polygamy, hesitated as guilty of polygamy, hesitated whether to refuse to admit as Tayler at office and see plats. suggested or admit and expel. The ability of the Columbiana congressman triumphed in the end. His position

NOT AFTER M'GREGOR

Prosecutor Brookes Has Taken No Action

FOR THE RETURN OF JESSE

To the Penitentiary, as Incorrectly Reported-McGregor Supposed to Be Visiting Relatives - Lunacy Inquest Still Pending at Lisbon.

Prosecuting Attorney J. H. Brookes says there is not a word of truth in the report published in a local daily that he had taken steps to have Jesse McGregor returned to the Ohio penitentiary for violation of his parole, by drinking. Mr. Brookes has authorized the following interview:

"In case complaint is made to the governor that any paroled prisoner is violating the conditions of his parole the law makes it the duty of the governor to notify the public prosecutor who then causes the paroled prisoner to be brought He Wants $5,000 Damages before the probate court for an inquiry as to the truth of the charges made against him. I have received no notice of this kind from the governor. No complaints have been made to me by any person that Mc-Gregor is violating the conditions of his parole. I have taken no steps to have him returned to the penitentiary, and there is nothing before me upon which I can take any action against McGregor. All I know about the matter is what I have seen in the newspapers. Of course I have taken no steps to contradict what the newspapers have published about the case "

The Wellsville Record says: "The conviction is growing in this city that the authorities are not after McGregor. He has not been seen about the city for several days, in fact not since ten days ago when he was seen on the ice of the river at the lower end of town. It was thought then he was heading for West Virginia, but it has since been learned that he was with his coursn, a young man who lives across the river. If Mc Gregor is out of town it is believed he is visiting with some of his relatives."

The petition for inquiry into Mc Gregor's mental condition is still pend ing at Lisbon.

Twelich Centucy Manne

According to twelfth century manners, it was considered more than rude for any one, man or woman, to look aimlessly imo space or gaze at the sky for any length of time, and staring about in the street or in church was considered especially impolite. People who desired to be considered well brought up were enjoined not to wave their hands about in the air and nor to place their hands upon the head or shealders of any distinguished person

When standing, both men and wonen were exhorted to place one hand over the other near the waist. A well bred woman, also, when walking out of doors, had to place the thumb of the left hand in the buckle or string by which her cloak was fastened under her neck, while with the two fingers of the right hand she kept the clock closed.

When on horseback, men were en joined not to look at their legs, but straight over the horse's head. In a book of the twelfth century we read of a model young woman who "walked nicely and did not look around. She did not speak to her mother nor great her father, neither would she look as man or woman."

J. C. B. Beatty has entered an action in common pleas court against Dr. William T. Norris, of this city. He asks a judgment of $5,000.

In the petition that has been filed, Beatty alleges that on the first day of November, 1899, he broke fractured the bones of his right arm below the elbow. Dr. Norris, a practicing physician and surgeon, was employed to set the bones. In doing this Beatty says Norris "was negligent and that the arm was not set properly. It is crooked and permanently impaired. He has suffered much pain and has been put to great expense. The arm is numb below the fracture."

A NEW JAIL ASSURED?

News From the County Seat to That Effect.

OLD RANCH TO BE CONDEMNED

Robert Hall, of This City, and a Salem Architect to Inspect It Tomorrow. Hand-To Borrow $10,000.

A new county jail is assured, according to a statement by the Lisbon Patriot. The fact that the improvements recom mended by Sheriffs Gill and Noragon and approved by Judge Smith, include practically everything but new walls and will cost $2,000, has determined the county officials to make a heroic effort to secure an entirely new building. This decision was assisted by the question arising whether the infirm brick walls would support the proposed slate roof. Several times during the past few years part of the walls have collapsed during heavy winds.

On Friday Robert Hall, of East Liverpool, and an expert from Salem, who is yet to be chosen, will be in Lisbon, and with County Commissioners Bowmar, George and French, will make a thorough examination of the walls of the building, and in the event that their finding is in accord with every grand jury empaneled within the past ten years, the jail will be finally condemned and will be destroyed.

The commissioners have at hand a county building fund of $15,000, and under the law can proceed to issue bonds to the amount of $10,000 toward constructing a new building, built on the old pany. Parties from the East are now in stone foundation, which is in as good condition as a new one would be, except some improvements to do away with the dampness that is always in details will be closed up. evidence in the lower cells.

The popular idea of erecting the new jail on the ground adjoining the court house on the west is not contemplated because the abandonment of the site on the hill would cause the same to revert to the heirs of the donor who deeded it to the county for jail purposes only. In lowing transfers have been recorded: the event that the jail is built, Sheriff Elizabeth Anderson to Grazia Z. ing and all prisoners will be transferred pool, $2,500; East Palestine Land comto an adjoining county.

Died at an Early Hour This Morning.

BORN IN STAFFORDSHIRE, ENG.,

Came to This Country In 1888 and Located In East Liverpool About One Year Later-One of the City's Most Promising Young Men.

George H. Eardley died this morning at 12:55 o'clock, at his home on Third street, after an illness of one month with typhoid fever.

Deceased was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Eardley, and was born in Staffordshire, 1874. He came to this' country in Oct. 1888 and located at Salineville with his parents where he resided for about one year. His parents then moved to this city and he came with them and secured a position at the Dresden pottery where he worked as an assistant to George Samler, a dishmaker. Later he learned the art of pressing and worked at that trade at the Vodrey pottery for a few years. He then accepted a position at the Burford about three years at the time of his death.

He was united in marriage to Miss perfected and the consent of all the Nell Martin, daughter of Mrs. D. B. Martin, at Del Roy February 4, 1898, by Rev. Jason Manley, an uncle of the bride. His wife and a five-weeks old child survive him.

> In the death of Goerge Eardley the city loses one of its brightest and most popular young men. He numbered his friends by the scores and search as you may it would be hard to find a more genial epirit than his. He was of a cheerful disposition, always had a kind word for everybody and was always welcomed to any gather-He was loved and honored by his fellow workmen and his death has cast a cloud of sorrow over the entire community. His wife has the sympathy of a large circle of friends in her sad bereavement.

Deceased was a member of the Elks and in his death members of the lodge realize that they lose one of their most valuable members. He was also a member of the printers' local.

Proved His Theory.

The late Hall McAllister some years ago entertained a visiting scientist at the Union club, before its amalgamation with the Pacific, and during the evening, a particularly foggy one, made some whimsical remark conveying the idea that fog was an excellent conductor of sound.

The scientist took exception to this novel theory and asked Mr. McAllister on what it was based.

"On phenomena which we have all observed," returned the ready jurist. "On an evening like this we hear the fog horn quite distinctly, but when there is no fog we cannot hear it at all."-San Francisco Argonaut.

The Craving For Stimulants.

The blood normally contains stimuants, and that these stimulants exercise a favoring influence on function and conduce to and may even be a necessary factor in the production of the feeling of well being explains the widespread liking in man and beast for stimulating substances. This liking, amounting often to a craving, is the expression of a great physiological principle. When health is perfect, when the blood is well provided with its proper stimulants and not overcharged with depressants, there is no eraving for extraneous stimulants, such as alcohol, tea or coffee, but when the blood is defective in the one or surcharged with the other then is felt the desire for the glass of wine or the cup

In order to obviate this desire the body should be kept at the highest level of health. The more perfect the health the more perfect will be the composition of the blood in respect to both physiological stimulants and deleterious toxins. A blood properly constituted in these and other respects will exercise a gentle stimulant action on the nervous system and induce a condition of mild physiological intoxication, which expresses itself in a feeling of well being and happiness-a condition that cannot be bettered.-Lan-

The Result of Too Much Pathos.

"One day," says Jean François Raffaelli, "Daudet was arguing a point that on the stage it is a mistake to insist too strongly on any one form of sentiment, whatever it may be. 'Lisplant and later learned the printing ten,' said he. 'I recall a little incident which may serve to illustrate my meaning: A woman dressed in black one day entered an omnibus in which I happened to be. She was in deep mourning, and her countenance was so worn, so contracted, so furrowed with grief, that her neighbor could not refrain from asking what terrible sorrow it could be that had thus left its marks upon her.

"'Whereupon the woman, amid the sympathetic attention of all the little world in the omnibus, including the conductor, who did nothing but blow his nose so as to hide his tears, told how she had lost first one child and within a very few days another. Every one pitied her greatly, but when she proceeded with many tears to tell of the death of a third child her hearers were somewhat less moved, and finally, when she launched into a long account of the loss of a fourth-devoured by a crocodile on the banks of the Nile-every one in the omnibus burst out laughing." This young colored man took a course in mechanical engineering, was an apt student, was well recommended and by reason of his excellent record obtained a situation through an ad vertisement. He reported for work, remained only a few hours and was then discharged for the simple reason that his skin was not white. The experience was repeated several times until he became utterly discouraged. He is now a waiter in the University club, where he is forced to serve white fellow graduates.

While Hall Caine was in this country several years ago the Aldine club of New York city dined him. Among those invited to meet Mr. Caine was one of the most popular of our American authors. Soon after the dinner be gan dinner cards began to circulate with requests for autographs. The author in question whispered to his neighbors

"I'm going to send my card up to Mr. Caine as soon as I can, for I am down for a speech later on, and I want to be able to say that I've read something that Caine has written."-New York Mail and Express

Cumberland People Raise the $7,000 Necessary

TO START CHELSEA POTTERY

There Is Nothing New In the George C. Murphy Deal For the Plant and No Definite' Action Has Been Taken In the Matter-Developements Expected Soon.

It will be known within a very short time whether the Chelsea pottery at New Cumberland is to resume operations under a new management

The bonus of $7,000 needed to start the plant has been subscribed, and the only thing that remains to be done is to get somebody to take the pottery. A gentleman who is in a position to know stated yesterday afternoon that no deals had been closed with anybody, but he thought the matter would be finally settled in a few days. George C. Murphy, who is negotiating for the pottery. stating that no definite action had been taken in the matter as far as he is concerned.

The Chelsea is an eight kiln plant and considered one of the finest potteries in the United States. It has been idle for a long time and some repairs and improvements will be needed before it can be started.

FOUND ROBERTS GUILTY.

Unanimous Statement by House Committee-Differ in Mode of Disbarment.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.-The special committee of the house of representatives to investigate the case of Brigham H. Roberts, of Utah, reached a final conclusion. On the polygamous status of Mr. Roberts the committee was unanimous and agreed upon a formal statement of facts. On the question of procedure to be adopted the committee was divided. The majority, consisting of all the members except Littlefield, of Maine, and De Armond, of Missouri, favored exclusion at the outset. Messrs. Littlefield and De Armond will make a minority report favorable to seating Roberts on his prima facie rights and then expelling him.

The statement of facts found by the committee was as follows:

We find that B. H. Roberts .. as elected as a representative to the Fifty-sixth congress from the state of Utah and was at the date of his election above the age of 25 years; that he had been for more than seven years a naturalized citizen of the United States and was an inhabitant of the state of Utah.

We further find that about 1878 he married Louisa smith, his first and lawful wi'e, with whom he has ever since lived as such and who, since their marriage, has borne him six

That about 1885 he married as his plural wife Celia Dibble, with whom he has ever since lived as such and who, since such marriage has borne him six children, of whom the last two were twins, born August 11, 1897.

That some years after his said marriage to Celia Dibbie he contracted another plural marriage with Margaret C. Shipp, with whom he has ever since lived in the habit and repute of marriage. Your committee is unable to fix the exact date of this marriage. It does not appear that he held her out as his wife before January, 1897, or that before that date she held him out as her husband, or that before that date they were reputed to be husband

That these facts are generally known in Utah, publicly charged against him during his campaign for election and were not denied by him.

That the testimony bearing on these facts was taken in the presence of Mr. Roberts, and that he fully cross-examined the witnesses, hut declined to place himself on the witness

WILL VOTE FEB. 15.

An Agreement Reached In Senate on Financial Bill-Hoar Philippine Resolution Adopted.

Washington, Jan. 18 .- An agreement was easily reached in the senate to take the final vote on the pending bill fixing gold as the standard of value on Feb. 15.

After several days of debate, the dragnet resolution of inquiry regarding the conduct of the Philippine war was adopted. It was introduced by Mr. Hoar (Mass.) and practically was adopted as a general substitute for resolutions of a similar, but less extended character, offered by Mr. Pettigrew and Mr. Lodge. Beyond a vigorous speech by Mr. Pettigrew, the resc-Intion aroused no debate, as it is within the discretion of the president to send or not to send any of the information requested.

The resolution offered by Mr. Hale (Mo.) as to the seizure of flour by the British authorities was adopted, but only after a spirited debate and after the resolution had been materially amended.

Mr. Davis, chairman of the committee on foreign relations, made a sharp attack upon the resolution, but withdrew his objections after it had been amended.

Mr. Teller (Silver Rep., Colo.) addressed the senate upon the financial

PUERTO RICANS IN WASHINGTON.

They Want Open Markets and Extension of Mortgage Suspension.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18 .- The advance guard of the Puerto Rican delegations reached Washington in the persons of M. Amedeo, M. Gonzales and M. Solomon, the latter acting as interpreter. These gentlemen claim to represent the agricultural interests of the island, and their main purpose is to secure open markets for sugar, coffee and other Puerto Rican products, and especially an extension of the present decree under which the foreclosure of mortgages was postponed.

Through the aid of General Davis, the delegation secured an appointment o appear before Senator Foraker's comnittee this morning. They were also een by Secretary Root. They laid tress on the fact that within two days he decree suspending the foreclosure of nortgages would expire, and besought im to prevent the ruin of the planters y an immediate extension of time. ecretary Root has taken the matter nder advisement.

Said Molineux Rented the Box.

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.-The prosecution practically closed its case against Roland B. Molineux, on trial for the murder of Mrs. Katherine J. Adams, with the introduction of the testimony of Nicholas Heckman, proprietor of a private letter box agency, who said Molineux had hired a box, in which he received patent medicines from manufacturers. He gave the name of H. C. Barnet. Cross-examination failed to break the testimony of Koch, the other letterbox man.

Three Dead, One May Die.

Easton, Pa., Jan. 18.—A section gang of nine men were run down in the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western tunnel, near Oxford, N. A WOLD OF CAUTION.

The old saying that "a man, who is naked can't give away his shirt," is only another way of saying that you can't give what you haven't got. The man can't give "free medical advice," or any other kind of medical advice who hasn' got a medical education and a certificate to the fact, in the form of a diploma. And in this particular a woman has no more privilege than a man. She can't give medical advice without medical education and medical knowledge

The offer of free medical advice made by Dr. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., has been imitated by so many, who without any medical qualifications claim to give "medical advice" that a word of caution is neces-

Don't write for medical advice to any one, man or woman, who is not a physician. If they are physicians they will vsicians or doctors so take the title of gnize them. If they that you may to don't claim that title it is because they dare not, for fear of the law.

Do not forget that there is just as much difference in doctors as in artists. Every little town has its artist who draws and paints. But these "artists" generally paint copies of the works of great artists like Millet. There was only one

There is only one Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, such as Dr. Pierce presides over. Thousands of women come or write to Dr. Pierce who have found no help at the hands of doctors of lesser skill and narrower experience

Any sick or ailing woman, suffering from the distressing forms of disease peculiar to women, is invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. Such consultations are absolutely private. Each letter is treated as a sacred confidence, and each answer is sent in a plain envelope, bearing no printing upon it

In this way offensive questions and repulsive examinations may be avoided Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

UNION LABELS

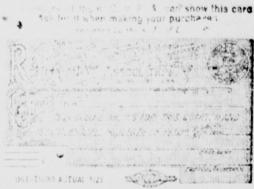

It should be a deep-rooted principle of all union workmen and union sympathizers, and particularly those members of the different organizations of East Liverpool, to buy nothing but Union Label goods, in preference to all others. And why not? If we ask fair wages for our labor, why should we buy goods made at unfair wages by others?

Effect of Altitude.

Perhaps in no state of the Union has elimate so much to do with the character of the people as in Colorado is the contention of a writer in Ainslee's. He says in part:

"Go into Colorado, climb the long ascent from the level of the Missouri and then as you emerge from the train into the handsomely improved streets and among the unsurpassed brick and stone residences of Denver feel your head swim with the lofty altitude and the rarefied air; then realize that the miners went on a mile farther into the air, that they are working and taking out millions of dollars of gold to the present day a mile higher in the air at Cripple Creek, at Leadville and a dozen other places. It will make you pause to think what exaltation there is in dwelling there always, what staying powers the pioneers must have had.

"Wait a day or so until the vertigo has passed away and the exhilaration comes to you that always comes when you have climbed a mountain and stood upon its top and gazed out over a wide world that expands below you. Then you will begin to feel that electric, that nervous surcharge, that indomitable, undiscourageable, almost towering spirit of elevation and still further elevation that makes Colorado almost the liveliest, the most irrepressible, the most determined element in the American body, social and poli-

For some reason which I have never been able to ascertain they are invariably tied up with their heads drawn as high as they will go. His Happy Future.

The Saunterer happened to be dining with a friend the other evening, and of course the table's population included the inevitable 5-year-old boy. The latter had fallen into the habit of asking for all kinds of impossible things, being refused and going howling from the room in obedience to the command. He would, re-enter two minutes later a bright I-accept-your-apology smile on his face.

On this evening, after the third excursion, he suddenly conceived an affection for the sugar bowl. A Mountain of Alum.

In China, 121/2 miles from the village of Liou-Chek, there is a mountain of alum which, in addition to being a natural curiosity, is a source of wealth for the inhabitants of the country, who dig from it yearly tons of alum. The mountain is not less than ten miles in circumference at its base and has a height of 1,940 feet. The alum is obtained by quarrying large blocks of stone, which are first heated in great furnaces and then in vats filled with boiling water. The alum crystallizes out and forms a layer about six inches in thickness. This layer is subsequently broken up into blocks weighing about ten pounds each.

Monkeys Fearless. Until a monkey is beaten he has no fear. He would as soon attack a lion as a gnat, and as long as he can look into your eyes he will not submit. He considers himself the master. Avert the head and he gives in. This is a recognized fact among animal trainers. The ringtail monkeys taken about by Italians are very gentle and are never whipped.

A Penalty For Being Polite.

It is more difficult to be polite in the city of Hamburg than in any other place in Europe. There the most chivalrous man has to think twice before giving up his seat in a car to a lady, as he may be turned off the car for politeness. It seems that the Hamburg trolley cars will seat, according to size, 20 or 28 persons, 10 to 14 on each side. In addition four persons are allowed on the front and five persons on the back platform. When the car is full. the conductor hangs out a sign, "Besetzt," which means "occupied," and is absolutely forbidden to take on another passenger until some one gets off the Sometimes, while the conductor is in front collecting fares, a lady will step on the car which is already "occupied." As there is no conductor on hand to prevent her, the lady steps inside, and the gentleman who may offer her a seat comes out and takes his stand on the platform. When the conductor after going his rounds returns to his post. he promptly requests the gentleman to step off the car, as he has forfeited his seat and the car is fully "occupied." Should be refuse to leave the car he is put off. The policemen on the streets are instructed to watch the cars sharply, and if they find a car carries even one more passenger than its proper complement the conductor is fined 72 cents, which is paid to a charity fund of the street railway company.-Phila delphia Press.

London's Great Clock.

Whatever complaints may be made against the tone of Big Ben, the famous London clock-and musicians say It is a terribly bad "E," at any rateevery one will acknowledge that the through. The mechanism for setting in motion the massive hammer which brings out the tone of Big Ben's 16 ton bell is very interesting. The striking machinery is driven by weights of about a ton and a half, which hang on a shaft 174 feet deep, and it is so arranged that after the chimes are over the hammer falls on the big bell within one second of Greenwich mean

The Engineer's Story.

"To run over a man-perhaps that's the only thing of all that shakes me. To see him on the track within 10 or 20 feet of you, to know that you can't stop to save him, to feel the wheels of the engine go over his body, crunching out his life-a man doesn't want to experience that more than once in a lifetime.

"It's worse with a child. There was an old mate of mine in the west when I was riding in the Union Pacific-nev-This morning Michael Gerace and er mind his name; he's dead now-as through three wrecks, a holdup and a fire. Well, one day Jim was a little behind his schedule and made like anything for the next stop. There was a crossing right in front of him. He saw that everything was clear, as he thought, and went right ahead, when all at once out of a clump of trees there ran a little golden haired fairy right in front of the engine. It was all over in one instant, and when the train stopped Jim dropped like a log. It was two months before he crept back again to work. But he could never come to that crossing but he saw the little girl with her hair fluttering in the wind running lystem requires an unusual amount out from the trees. And one day he just got off his engine, turned it over to the second man and walked away, never to be seen again until his body was Boston Courier found in the river."-Leslie's Weekly

English Restaurants.

Different countries produce different foods. Perhaps that is the reason why a description of a railway restaurant in England sounds so curious to American ears. This terminus restaurant corresponds to the American lunch counter, where pie and coffee are the staple refreshments of the hurried hungry man.

Patrons crowd the English place three deep and wait for the front row to finish eating and depart. One elderly woman drinks hot spirit and water and eats sandwiches. Beside her a country couple devour buns and milkhow British "buns" sounds!-and a busy man eats sponge cake and drinks port wine. Can one imagine a Chicago broker rushing into a quick lunch counter with a demand for sponge cake? He might as well ask for a coach and four.

In this London restaurant a mother of a family regales herself and her meek husband with ginger beer and cakes, and a nervous young clergyman asks for a glass of milk. Buns. sponge cake, milk and beer-the menu is a little different from those on this side of the water .- Chicago News.

It Still Worked.

"No," she answered coldly, "I can not marry a man who carries a rabbit's foot for luck."

For a moment he contemplated her in intense silence, but only for a moment. "Wuo" he exclaimed, "now can doubt the efficacy of the rabbit's foot after this?

Then he left her forever, pausing only to laugh the wild, mirthless laugh which was suitable to the occasion .-Detroit Journal.

The Eoston Boy's Diversions.

"Emerson," said Mrs. Beaconstreet. "how did you comport yourself in the thoroughfare this morning with your new neighbors?"

"I fear, ma mere," replied Emerson, "that our actions were scarcely such as would much intensify our intellects. You see, he knows nothing of Auguste Comte, his parents have forbidden him Voltaire, he dislikes Mr. Shakespeare, and his familiarity with chemistry and astronomy is superficial to a weary ing degree. So we made mud pies."-

Wonders of New Hampshire.

The average reader will be amazed to learn that little New Hampshire, with less than 10,000 square miles, has no less than 406 lakes and ponds, 154 brooks, 58 rivers and 294 mountains. This makes lowa look small. Colorado, a big state, has 556 creeks. Texas has comparatively few rivers, lakes and creeks. Alabama has 663 creeks and 67 rivers. Iowa cannot approach that record. Minnesota has 222 lakes and 140 rivers. - New York Press.
